

MY NEVER AGAIN LIST

By Don Gossett “The Power of your Words”

Never again will I confess “I can’t” for “I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.” (Phil. 4:13)

Never again will I confess lack, for “And my God will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.” (Phil. 4:19)

Never again will I confess fear, for “God hath not given me the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.” (II Tim. 1:7)

Never again will I confess doubt and lack of faith, for “God hath given to every man the measure of faith.” (Rom. 12:3)

Never again will I confess weakness, for “The Lord is the strength of my life.” (Ps. 27:1), and “...but the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits.” (Dan. 11:32)

Never again will I confess supremacy of satan over my life, for “Greater is He that is within me than he that is in the world.” (I John 4:4)

Never again will I confess defeat, for “God always causes me to triumph in Christ Jesus.” (II Cor. 2:14)

Never again will I confess lack of wisdom, for “Christ Jesus is made unto me wisdom from God.” (I Cor. 1:30)

Never again will I confess sickness, for “By His stripes I am healed.” (Isa. 53:5), and Jesus “Himself took my infirmities and bare my sickness.” (Matt. 8:17)

Never again will I confess worries and frustrations, for I am “Casting all my cares upon Him who cares for me.” (I Peter 5:7) In Christ I am “care-free”.

Never again will I confess bondage, for “Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.” (II Cor. 3:17) My body is the temple of the Holy Spirit.

Never again will I confess condemnation, for “...there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.” (Rom. 8:1) I am in Christ; therefore, I am free from condemnation.

Never again will I confess loneliness, Jesus said, “Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.” (Matt. 28:20) and “I will never desert you, nor will I ever forsake you.” (Heb.13:5)

Never again will I confess discontentment because “have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am. (and) I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.” (Phil. 4:11, 13)

Never again will I confess unworthiness because “He made Him who knew no sin to be sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.” (II Cor. 5:21)

Never again will I confess confusion because “God is not the author of confusion, but of peace.” (I Cor. 14:33, and “We have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God: that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.” (I Cor. 2:112)

Never again will I confess persecution, for “If God be for me, who can be against me?” (Rom. 8:31)

Never again will I confess the dominion of sin over my life because, “The Law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of Sin and death.” (Rom. 8:2), and “As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.” (Ps. 103:12)

Never again will I confess insecurity because “When you lie down, you will not be afraid; When you lie down, your sleep will be sweet... For the LORD will be your confidence.” (Prov. 3:24-26)

Never again will I confess failure because, “But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us.” (Rom. 8:37)

Never again will I confess frustration, for “You will keep him in perfect peace, Whose mind is stayed on You, Because he trusts in You.” (Isa. 26:3)

Never again will I confess fear of the future, “But as it is written, eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him, but God hath revealed them to us by His Spirit.” (I Cor. 2:9-10)

Never again will I confess troubles because Jesus said, “These things I have spoken to you, so that in Me you may have peace. In the world you have tribulation, but take courage; I have overcome the world.” (John 16:33)
